Speaker : Michael Stolz

May 7th, 16:00

Interdisciplinary Perspectives in the History of Postwar Applied Mathematics

Using the history of operations research as an example, the paper discusses the relevance of the history of applied mathematics to several research programs in contemporary history.