

Convergent sequences in discrete groups

Abstract:

I want to present some ideas on duality of discrete groups which are related to tensor categories. I will prove that the so-called unitary dual of the free group is strictly larger than the free group itself. This answers a longstanding question in the realm of harmonic analysis and some questions about the Bohr topology on the free group. Everything will be motivated and supplemented with examples.

Prof. Dr. Andreas Thom (Universität Leipzig)